PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Dr. Anastasia Wiley has been involved in archaeological investigations for 35 years starting in upstate New York as assistant and field director for the State University at Albany- New York State Science Service summer field schools where she published a Manual on Field Techniques. She then attended University of Pennsylvania where she was a field director and field crew chief for investigations in Casa San Paolo, Bari, Italy and Franchthi Cave, Kranidi, Greece, respectfully. Her dissertation introduced a New Neolithic Pottery Typology for Southern Italy. In addition, she is currently finishing a report on the Bioarchaeology of non-marine Mollusca recovered from the Greek excavations. Subsequent work for the University of California, Davis resulted in a publication regarding another typological study, this time for Reworked Bifaces from the Warm Springs Archaeo-logical Project. Before settling in California she also worked in Caribbean archaeology where she was liaison for the California Committee for the Bicentennial Celebration of Columbus' Discovery of America, Turks and Caicos Islands.

SUMMARY OF RELATED PROJECTS

Over the past 30 years, Dr. Wiley has been Principal Investigator and Research Director for over 1,000 cultural resource investigations conducted throughout southern California, primarily in Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, and San Diego counties but as far north as Los Banos. Projects have included small, large, and long-term investigations extending up to 17 years in continual research and including as many as 100 people; several projects employed 40 archaeologists. Reflecting her diverse training and experience, these projects include:

- prehistoric and historic archaeology,
- ethnography [including ethnozoology, ethnobotany, and Native language and music studies],
- history studies, historic structure assessments with HABS/HAER documentation,
- geophysical investigations for prehistoric sites and historic sub-surface structural remains, and
- zoological studies.

A full resume is available upon request as well as individual one-page summaries for these project categories.

Within the last eight years, Dr. Wiley has expanded her expertise to include intensive training in Native American cultural studies and has worked as a Tribal Archaeological Consultant for the Chilkoot/Chilkat Tlingit in Haines and Klukwan, Alaska. She has obtained certifications in NEPA compliance and cultural resources; and application of federal standards to the identification, management, consultation and protection of Native American Traditional Cultural Places and Sacred Lands. Dr. Wiley is married to Tlingit/ Southern Tutchone Native, Ted Wiley, has been adopted into the Tlingit Eagle-Kaagwaantaan-Wolf House and the elite Yanwaa Shaá. For the last 8 years she has also worked with prehistoric and historic sites in SE Alaska. Dr. Wiley was an Adjunct Professor at University of Alaska Southeast for four consecutive summers where she ran the Native Archaeological Training Program in Haines/Klukwan, Alaska. In addition, since 2013 Dr. Wiley has been Director of the Chilkat Historic Preservation Office [CHPO] for the Chilkat Indian Village at Klukwan, Alaska as well as continuing work in Southern California.
